

Active Healthy Aging

This week the Bureau of Senior Services welcomed Active Healthy Aging specialists from Scotland and Greece. Dr. Ted Muilenburg hosted the group. Dr. Dawn Skelton and Mr. Bob Laventure were visiting West Virginia to present at the Geriatric Falls Prevention Symposium 2016 held on April 19 and 20 at Marshall University. The symposium was developed and hosted by Dr. Shelvy Campbell-Monroe, Assistant Professor Translational and Clinical Sciences, Joan C. Edwards School of Medicine & School of Pharmacy. In addition, Commissioner Roswall invited the group to be his guests on “The Road Ahead” to discuss the latest evidence-based information to educate home care and healthy lifestyle leaders in strengthen seniors and prevent falls. The show will be scheduled to air at a later date.

